

LaCroix Haiti New Testament Mission

LaCroix Haiti New Testament Mission, is serving the people of Haiti with the love of God through education, medical assistance, and the Word.

New Testament Mission consists of 7 churches and 7 schools with over 3,000 students, from pre-school through grade twelve.

Haitian families affected by the January earthquake are now returning to the countryside from the Port-au-Prince area. New Testament Mission is working to assist children and families in resettlement to the LaCroix area, 80 miles north of Port-au-Prince.

Full Gospel Assemblies Pastor and Missionary involved with LaCroix Mission since 2006.

Pastor William Spriggs of Harvest Fellowship, Washington, PA has been serving as a missionary to Haiti over the past four years. His ministry there has included preaching and teaching, as well as conducting revival services, and giving a hand of encouragement. Pastor Spriggs has also assisted with construction needs during his time spent with the mission teams to the country of Haiti.

Pray for Pastor Spriggs as he develops plans for return into Haiti to assist with ministry in the aftermath of the Port-Au-Prince earthquake.
